Other L.A. Libraries

Academic Libraries

Loyola Marymount University
Find out how members of the Otis community may access LMU's Hannon Library. Contact the Circulation Manager. Otis Graduate Students are eligible for cards. Please contact Shelley Forbes for more information.

Getty Research Library
- Visiting the Getty Research Library has never been easier. The Library is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Call (310) 440-7390 and make an appointment. Parking will be free. For further information about visiting, click here.
- Getty library materials do not circulate. Plaza Reader Privileges are easily granted. Please show your Otis ID. Materials from storage may be paged for use in the library.
- Otis faculty, graduate students, and other students with extensive research needs may apply for Stack Reader Privileges and use the open stack and reading areas of the Library.
- Reference Librarians will be on hand to assist you, but don't expect them to do the research for you. Try the Getty search Gateway first and make sure they have what you need before you go.

UCLA Arts Library
Obtaining a UCLA Library Card ($100 per year)

Public Libraries

Los Angeles Public Library
With an LAPL card, you can requisition materials from any branch in the entire LA area to be sent to a convenient local branch, including the Loyola Village Branch across the street. The resources are vast. This is an excellent option for many resource needs. There are also numerous full-text databases available through the LAPL site (with library card number). An E-Card will allow you to use many of the databases from home. You will need an L.A. address.

County of Los Angeles Public Libraries
There's a branch in Marina del Rey and any California resident is eligible to borrow materials. This is L.A.'s other public library system, covering areas not counted as part of the actual city.

Beverly Hills Public Library

Digital Public Library of America
Everything is completely online. It brings together the riches of America’s libraries, archives, and museums, and makes them freely available to the world. Millions of books and images available.
Library Catalogs

World Cat
WorldCat is the world's largest network of library content and services. If you find a book you want, you can find it in any member libraries nearby. Otis and smaller libraries may have the book, but we aren't members, so it won't show up.

Melvyl
Melvyl is a computer-based library system for the California Digital Library, a shared library of the University of California (UC). The Catalog database contains records for books and other materials owned by any of the UC campuses, including UCLA. It also contains records for the California State Library in Sacramento and several other California institutions. California Digital Library.
